

Nuto Farms Supply
to Attend Women's Retreat in Duluth

Rice Lake, Wisc. (October 24, 2005) -- Nuto Farms Supply, grower of Kitchen Kleen Potatoes and producer of Gotatoes™, will be attending a Charter Communication's Women's Retreat in Duluth, Minnesota. The retreat, A Taste of Italy, will take place Saturday, October 29, in Duluth. All proceeds gathered from the event will be donated to breast cancer research efforts in the Duluth area. Nuto Farms will provide a gift basket to raffle at the Expo.

Nuto Farms' Kitchen Kleen Potatoes and Gotatoes are an excellent source of fiber when eaten with the skin on, and boasts the cancer-fighting agent potassium. In addition, potatoes contain the same amount of Vitamin C as an orange.

Visit their booth at the Expo to speak with a Nuto Farms' representative or pick up a company brochure. Kitchen Kleen potatoes are available at grocery stores in Duluth in 5, 8, 10, 15, and 20 lb. bags.

Nuto Farms Supply, Inc. began operation in 1929 when Barron West planted his first crop of Russet Burbank potatoes in the fertile northern Wisconsin soil. This modest, hard-working farmer could not have imagined that his five-acre plot would some day evolve into a 5,000-acre, state-of-the-art, fully-irrigated farm that maintains a "hands-on" approach from seed to store shelf.
